

Wild Project presents

The International Human Rights Art Festival

November 12-18, 2018

At the Wild Project

195 E. 3rd Street

New York, NY

Producer Tom Block and Assistant Producer Layla Zami

For tickets & Full schedule visit IHRAF.org

The Festival comprises 30 events and 150+ artists, presenting advocacy performances and art which bring together beauty, sincerity, vulnerability and engagement to open a space for healing, discussion and social change. Artists include Oxana Chi, Layla Zami, Rokafella Joya Powell / MOPDC, Circus Amok, Barkha Patel Dance, Owen Valentine, Kaina Quenga, Christopher Nuñez, Theatre of the Oppressed, Thank You for Coming Out, J Chen Project.

The International Human Rights Art Festival is a growing initiative to connect artists, activists, politicians, social and religious leaders, and community members with art events throughout New York City and around the world.

Our honorary co-sponsors and participants include:

Norman Lear, Barbra Streisand, Amy Poehler, Senator Charles E. Schumer (NY)
Kathleen Turner, Senator Bernie Sanders (VT), Wei Jingsheng
Senator Kirsten Gillibrand (NY), Congressman and Civil Rights Hero John Lewis (GA),
Susan Collins (ME), Nydia Velazquez (NY).

